

520 / Building Use

Repair and Replacement - Damage to Building

The library shall make an effort to collect reimbursement from individuals for cost of repair and replacement when there has been willful damage done to the building (i.e., vandalism) and it can be established who is responsible.

In the case of accidental damage done to the building, the library shall assume complete responsibility for cost of repair and replacement.

Approved 05/21/1984